

Microsoft Dynamics Services Overview

ORGANIZATION

XTIVIA has been a Microsoft Gold Partner since 2002. We know that CRM alone cannot improve your company's relationship with customers. To truly achieve results, you need solutions customized to your specific needs. Our combined experience of over 60 years integrating CRM and back-office systems is here to provide your business with the solutions it needs.

DELIVERING SOLUTIONS

We offer a full range of Microsoft Dynamics consulting services to clients of all sizes, including small and medium businesses, as well as Fortune 500 enterprises. As a Microsoft Gold Partner, we bring extensive skills with the Microsoft platform and associated technologies to help you succeed with your technology initiative. Whether you need enterprise architectural guidance, end-to-end project implementation services, or something in-between, our team of Certified Microsoft Professionals can help. We work with customers looking to implement Salesforce from the ground up and those already leveraging Salesforce today. Existing clients may be looking for ongoing development support, have a new project, or need to get more ROI out of their system. We find the solution for your business needs.
